Political Leaders See Alike

Agreed Senate
Ought to Ratify
Charter Speedily
As Peace Move

WASHINGTON, July 13 —(AP)—Four leaders of different political views declared today that the Senate ought to ratify the United Nations Charter speedily to establish American responsibility in international peace-keeping.

President William Green of the American Federation of Labor; John Foster Dulles, foreign affairs advisor to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the 1944 presidential campaign; Norman Thomas, former Socialist candidate for president; and Philip Murray, president of the CIO all endorsed the charter.

They appeared as witnesses in the Senate Foreign Relations committee's final day of hearings on the 50-nation agreement signed at San Francisco.

Green, first on the stand, told committee members the charter will make possible "collective bargaining" between the nations that ought to go a long way toward preventing war.

"The document itself is evidence of the will to peace dominating so many nations," he declared. "No one nation would draft the charter as it now stands, but all in the spirit of tolerance are willing to accept a document which represents the high point of mutual agreement."

At Parting of Ways

Dulles, who served as chief advisor to the American delegation at San Francisco, said in a statement prepared for delivery before the committee that "The United States is at the parting of the ways."

"Either we must act to continue the association of the United Nations or we must let that association lapse and go it alone," he declared in urging approval of the charter.

Thomas, in a prepared statement, said he thought the Senate should ratify the charter "not because I believe it an adequate basis for lasting peace, but because I believe that the United States will be in a better position to lead in the establishment of such a basis if it should ratify the charter and in good faith use its constructive provisions for an increase in world cooperation."

Murray Approves

CIO President Philip Murray, in a statement submitted to the committee, called for "the early and overwhelming approval of the charter." He declared that "reservations or limitations of any description to the United Nations Charter must be understood as simply an attempt to defeat its enactment."

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) forecast a favorable committee report either tonight or tomorrow morning.

Carl H. Mote, of Indianapolis, Ind., spoke against the charter. He said he represented Gerald L. K. Smith, the American First party, the National Farmers Guild and the Veterans of World War Two. Chairman Connally challenged Mote's right to appear for the veterans, declaring "most of them aren't home yet."

Mote said the charter "is void of all moral basis."

NEW YORK, July 13 —(AP)—Marlene Dietrich, tireless entertainer of G.I.s, arrived in New York early today from Paris in an ATC plane after an 11 months' USO tour of Europe.

Poplar Bluff Health Officer Gets 30 Days

Suspends Sentence;
Police Chief
Case Dismissed

ST. LOUIS, July 13 —(AP)—Federal Judge Ruben M. Hulén today gave Claude E. Murray, Poplar Bluff city health officer, a 30-day suspended sentence on a contempt of court charge growing out of a dispute over an Office of Price Administration investigation of a Poplar Bluff frozen food locker.

A contempt charge was dismissed against John W. Sims, Poplar Bluff chief of police.

"It is this court's opinion that the defendant, Murray, in his denial of making threats of arrests and other testimony given at the contempt hearing coolly, calmly and deliberately gave false testimony," said Judge Hulén.

"What attitude the district attorney will take with regard to the testimony of the defendant Murray in this court is not for this court to determine."

Harry Blanton, U. S. District Attorney, said he would make no statement at this time.

"The main impression I get of the defendant is of one imbued somewhat with his importance. His conduct suggests that a little authority in the hands of some people can become an aggravation if not a dangerous thing."

"Part of his conduct in this case I ascribe to lack of knowledge, experience and proper advice."

"As I view the evidence in this case in regard to Murray he may have acted in good faith when his complaints to the inspectors of the OPA were first made x x x but he soon became the victim of counsel of those who are against the policies of the OPA and thereafter was held out to the public as one who stood between the good people of Poplar Bluff and epidemics of disease of the most devastating character."

No Concern Shown

Judge Hulén said the defendant showed no concern whatever as to the origin of the meat or whether it came from diseased animals or persons who handled it prior to its storage in the lockers.

"Murray's conduct in this case," said the court, "and the false premises presented have aroused considerable feeling in Poplar Bluff. To destroy meat because it is touched by the inspectors will cause more ill feeling and that may be the plan and purpose of such action."

"No one would refuse to eat the meat if informed as to the facts of this case."

Independence Soldier Can't Guard Truman

ANTWERP, July 13 —(AP)—Pfc. William H. Hartigan and President Truman are both from Independence, Mo., but William will not be down to meet the president when he steps off the USS Augusta Sunday morning.

Wearing fatigues and browned off about the whole business Hartigan, a member of the 35th division's 137th infantry which was selected for Truman's honor guard, explained today:

"I stand only five feet five and a half. The 400 men chosen for the honor guard had to be five feet eight up to five feet 'en."

So when Mr. Truman comes to town I'll be pulling guard duty."

"I used to pass the Truman family home every morning going to school. William Chrisman her son—two Luger pistols and high school, the same school the Mike Glick German guide."

Eisenhower Expresses His Gratitude

LONDON, July 13 —(AP)—Gen. Eisenhower expressed gratitude and admiration today to all the soldiers who fought victoriously under his command in one of the last announcements to come from Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force.

The supreme commander's message was released here by the Ministry of Information, addressed to all members of the Allied Expeditionary Force. It stated:

"The task to which we set ourselves is finished and the time has come for me to relinquish the combined command."

"In the name of the United States and the British Commonwealth, from whom my authority is derived, I should like to convey to you the gratitude and admiration of our two nations for the manner in which you have responded to every demand that has been made upon you."

"At times conditions have been hard and the task to be performed arduous. No praise is too high for the manner in which you have surmounted every obstacle."

"I should like, also, to add my own personal word of thanks to each one of you for the part you have played, and the contribution you have made to our joint victory."

"Now that you are about to pass to other spheres of activity, I say to you and wish you good luck and Godspeed."

Pilot Praised For Landing

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 13 —(AP)—While the passengers prayed, the pilot of a crippled Eastern Airlines transport brought the ship to an emergency landing in a Carolina cornfield yesterday after it collided with an army plane 3,000 feet up, killing two army fliers and a two-year-old boy.

The child was one of 20 passengers and three crewmen aboard the Boston-Miami Airliner, which went down 30 miles east of here. Four others, including the boy's mother, Mrs. A. E. Williams of Miami, Fla., were reported seriously injured, and several were shaken up.

One of the passengers, Mrs. Annie Lee Moore Walker, 26, of Columbia, credited Captain G. D. Davis, of Miami, the pilot, with saving their lives.

She said she noticed the army plane "veering in toward us from our left" and added that "I think I saw it about three seconds before we crashed."

"There was no panic at all among the passengers after the collision or during the 15 or 20 seconds it took the pilot to bring us down to a gentle landing," said Mrs. Walker, who was hospitalized at Florence, S. C., after being shaken up.

"Everyone was quiet and I believe I was in tune with them, because I'm sure we all were praying."

Honor Award To Lt. C. Webb Posthumously

Superb Flyer, He Led His Squadron
In Daring Raids

Lieutenant Commander Eugene Nelson Webb, USN, husband of Mrs. Alice Ebing Webb, 106 Phelps street, Windsor, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross posthumously by the secretary of the navy. Lieutenant Commander Webb was killed in action on January 15th of this year.

The citation accompanying the award reads:

"For heroism and extraordinary achievement as commanding officer of a composite squadron attached to an aircraft carrier in action against enemy Japanese forces in the Philippine islands area from January 1 to 15, 1945. A superb flyer, Lieut. Com. Webb personally led his squadron in daily raids and, consistently selecting the most dangerous missions as his own assignment, struck fiercely at vital Japanese targets, pressing home his relentless attacks in the face of terrific anti-aircraft fire and strong enemy opposition to inflict extensive and costly damage upon enemy aircraft, ground installations and surface forces. Inculcating in his pilots his own indomitable fighting spirit, Lieut. Com. Webb maintained his command at the peak of combat efficiency during a period of intensive aerial warfare and, by his brilliant direction, bold tactics and great personal valor, contributed essentially to the success of our aerial offensive in this strategic area. His gallant devotion to duty throughout was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States naval service."

Lieutenant Commander Webb, 28, was born at LaMonte, Mo.

Return to Work, Or Lose Jobs

NEW YORK, July 13 —(AP)—The Publishers Association of New York City today notified striking members of the Newspaper and Mail Deliverers' Union (Ind) it would be forced to terminate the employment of those who did not return to work.

"The publishers will choose this course only with reluctance," they said in a statement, "but must do so if forced by the continued refusal of the union members to comply with War Labor Board orders."

Their action came as police guards around major New York newspaper plants were increased, after the War Labor Board gave the publishers a free hand to employ workers other than the striking delivermen by rescinding its order extending the union's contract.

Police Called on Chick Theft Case; the Robber Was a Rat

Bettie Harker, 707 West Pettis street, called police headquarters between 5 and 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon and requested an officer, or officers, be sent to her home to investigate the theft of 70 baby chicks, since 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Officers "Tige" Clark and John Neitzert were dispatched on the call. They found 33 small chickens bedded in an old panel truck bed on the ground. "There had been 103, Mrs. Harker told them, when she put them in there at 1 o'clock. They were mystified, because how could anyone come along, in broad daylight and take 70 chickens without being seen or heard. But the chickens were gone."

Later in the evening Mrs. Harker's husband, Raymond, returned home from work. He began an investigation. He lifted the truck bed. The mystery was solved. There, in a rat hole in the ground, were ten chickens, still alive. Sixty had been killed. The rodents had pulled the little chickens through a hole in the truck, down into their place in the ground.

Harker killed ten young rats, but was never able to locate the old ones.

Sixteen New Tires Missing

Sixteen new tires were taken, sometime Thursday night or early Friday morning, from the State Fair Floral Company service station, 1520 South Limit avenue, according to a report made to police headquarters this morning.

The loss was discovered by U. L. Parks, manager, when he went to the place of business to open it for the day. The tires were on racks in the station building, to which entrance had been gained through a window on the west side, which is the rear of the structure. So far as has been ascertained nothing else was taken.

Superforts Dump 3,000 Tons Of Fire On Five Jap Cities; Typhoon Damages Warships

All Now Back in Action Taking Part
In Plane Carrier
Strike at Tokyo

By Leif Erickson

GUAM, July 13 —(AP)—A raging typhoon lashed Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey's Third Fleet with 138 mile an hour winds last June 5, tore the bow off the Cruiser Pittsburgh and damaged at least 20 other warships. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced today after virtually every damaged ship was back in action.

At least four of the damaged ships—the battleship Massachusetts and Indiana, the carrier San Jacinto and the destroyer John Rodgers — participated in last Tuesday's 1,000 plane carrier strike at Tokyo.

The typhoon damaged more ships than the Japanese navy has been able to do in action in any single battle. But Nimitz made no mention of anyone being killed or seriously injured. He said no ships were sunk.

He listed 20 damaged ships as repaired and back in action, including three fast new battleships and two Essex class carriers.

The cruiser Pittsburgh, which miraculously stayed afloat, is being refitted for action. Presumably some additional ships, not identified, were damaged and have not returned to sea.

Many of the ships were badly damaged by towering 100 foot high seas. None was heavily hit but the fast, new heavy cruiser Pittsburgh, which was caught near the center of the storm off the Ryukyu islands.

Tossed Prow Aside

A thunderous sea ripped off 104 feet of her prow "and tossed it aside as though it were a match box to wallow in the storm off the ship's port side," reported Associated Press correspondent Robin Coons.

Capt. John E. Gingrich ordered the engines reversed and swung the 665 foot ship precariously around in a circle to escape a collision with her own bow. She came out in the dead calm of the storm's center.

Sealed bulkheads kept the Pittsburgh afloat and the cruiser, normally capable of 33 knots, lumbered back to Guam at nine knots for temporary repairs. The bow was taken in tow by a tug and brought back to port.

Planes Flipped Around

Towering seas crushed 25 feet of the carrier Hornet's flight deck and badly damaged several destroyers, other correspondents reported.

Planes on one small escort carrier "were flipped around like beanbags, tossed into the air and over and over in a jumbled heap of wreckage," said Associated Press correspondent Grant MacDonald. The forward end of her flight deck was ripped up and left dangling over the bow.

Ships which suffered damage and have returned to action included:

Essex class carriers Hornet and Bennington; the fast battleships Massachusetts, Indiana and Alabama; the Independence class cruiser-type carriers San Jacinto and Belleau Wood; destroyers John Rodgers and Blue; escort carrier Bougainville.

The 100 sleeping cars will be built by the Pullman Manufacturing company, Cleveland, and the American Car and Foundry company, St. Charles.

Work Was Costly

WASHINGTON, July 13 —(AP)—The War Department, which originally estimated the Pan-American highway could be constructed for $14,714,000, spent $42,715,591 on it and dropped the job unfinished.

Lt. Gen. Eugene Reybold, chief of army engineers, gave these figures to the Senate War Investigating committee as it began an inquiry into the whole history of the project.

Plane Crashes, Trooper and Pilot Killed

CORNING, Ark., July 13 —(AP)—Trooper John M. Greim of the Missouri state highway patrol and Claude Hays, 30, of Campbell, Mo., business man were killed today when Hays' plane crashed near Corning while they were assisting ground officers in locating two car theft suspects.

The plane, a PT22 was owned by Hays who volunteered to assist Trooper Greim in helping locate the men who abandoned an automobile when other troopers sought to question them.

Hays was killed instantly. Greim was brought to a hospital here where he died an hour later.

Missouri highway police said the two suspects, who had been chased from near Malden, Mo., abandoned their automobile between Pollard and Corning on highway 82, and fled into the woods.

Crashed Near Car

Trooper Earl Bradley of Poplar Bluff, Mo., said the plane crashed near his car as he was driving along the highway. He did not know the cause.

Greim asked Hays to take him up and aid in searching in and around Campbell for the suspects. Hays, owner of a motor company at Campbell, has been flying since last September. He is a member of the Campbell city council, is married and has two children. Greim resided at Dexter, Mo.

Col. Hugh Waggoner, patrol superintendent, said Greim has been a patrolman since 1939. His home formerly was Warrensburg where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Greim live. He is married and the father of one child.

Get Ready for Tin Collection

Save your tin cans. Prepare them as directed for the salvage collection, and place them on your front curb at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Volunteers will come around in trucks, some time during the afternoon, and pick them up.

More volunteers are needed to provide trucks. If you can use your truck for this purpose Sunday afternoon, call phone 895.

The Japanese have captured roughly 70% of the world's production of tin, out of which the United States received about 90% of its supply. A limited amount of tin comes from Bolivia, Africa, Wales, and a few remote areas of the world. Much of our recoverable tin must be salvaged from used tin cans.

Wash thoroughly. Remove labels. Remove ends or fold them in. In either case cans must be firmly flattened by stepping on them. Store in a dry place. Deliver to your local salvage collection.

One barrel will contain all tin cans prepared by an average family in one year. Evaporated milk cans ARE needed. Only oil, varnish, paint, floor polish cans are NOT needed. Cpl. C. A. Downs Is Returning

Cpl. Cloyd A. Downs, whose mother Mrs. Alonzo Downs resides on route 1 Sedalia, is returning from Europe with the Eighth infantry division. The Eighth (Golden Arrow) division was in the Normandy breakthrough, the capture of Brest, the bitter fight in the Hurtgen forest. Troops of the Eighth were the first to cross the Roer river, launching the drive that reached the Rhine. The Golden Arrow division then cut the Ruhr pocket in two and finished its ETO fighting by crossing the Elbe and linking with the Russians.

Cpl. Downs attended Warsaw high school and at the time he entered service on Nov. 11, 1943, he was employed as a brakeman on the M. K. T. at New Franklin. Cop's Lucky 13

CHICAGO, July 13—(AP)—Police Officer Marshall Pidgeon shined up his badge, No. 13, looked at the calendar and recalled today is the 13th anniversary of his assignment to the bomb squad.

He doesn't think 13 is an unlucky number. "We've been handling bombs for 13 years," Pidgeon said. "And I haven't been blown up yet."

Prevent Possible Train Wreck

Split second thinking by Eugene Caudell, 11, and Bobby Rolan, 13, (right) in Prince Georges county, Md., was credited by Baltimore and Ohio railroad officials with saving the crack Ambassador, bound through Washington from Baltimore to Detroit, from possible catastrophe. Walking through the afternoon storm, the boys saw lightning strike a giant tree, felling it across the tracks. Knowing the fast flyer was due to pass any minute, the boys ran to a nearby house and notified the local station which in turn sent a terse bulletin to Laurel where the train was flagged down. Had the message arrived ninety seconds later, the Ambassador might have crashed into the fallen tree. The boys, shown sitting on part of the tree that fell across the track, will receive a surprise for their work, according to Baltimore and Ohio railroad officials. (NEA Telephoto)

Your neighbor's Riversides didn't come on his car; he chose them himself, to replace the tires he found on his car as "original equipment"! He chose them deliberately, in preference to the tires on new cars and all other famous tires. (Ever ask him why?).

More MILES-OF-SAFETY ON RIVERSIDES

Riversides are now actually stronger than Wards pre-war tires! Here's why:—Each individual cord is stronger to begin with; then chemically-strengthened to stay strong, next liquid-dipped to "weld" the cords together, then cushioned in rubber! Finally, the plies are cemented together before vulcanizing to provide greater protection against separation, bruises and blow-outs!

WHY SAVE TIN CANS? tin protects

U. S. military regulations authorize approximately 6 pounds of food every day for every soldier, sailor, marine, and coast guardsman. Nothing is so important as the health of our men. Their food must be kept pure. TIN is the best protective covering for food.

TIN "keeps the powder dry," too. The fighting efficiency of our soldiers depends upon their having dry powder for their guns. 500,000,000 salvaged TIN cans each year are required to supply sufficient TIN to solder the ammunition boxes of our armed forces.

Curb Pickup of Tin Cans Sunday, July 15th

Please have your TIN cans cleaned, label removed, and flattened, and on the curb for this pickup. Your help is needed.

British Units Bombard Nicobar Isles

CALCUTTA, July 13 (AP)—British fleet units have bombarded the strategic Nicobar islands while carrier planes attacked airfields in northwest Sumatra, Southeast Asia Command headquarters announced tonight in a special communique.

British minesweepers swept the approaches to Malacca strait, which lies between Sumatra and the great naval base of Singapore, from July 5 to 10 without sighting a Japanese vessel.

While fleet units attacked the Nicobars, planes also laid their explosives on the islands. The Nicobars lie 280 miles northwest of Sumatra, rich Dutch oil producing island, and about 900 miles west of the Kra peninsula of Malaya, linking Singapore to the mainland of Asia.

Rear Admiral W. R. Patterson commanded the attacking warships—which included the cruiser Nigeria, the carriers Ameer and Emperor, the destroyer Roebuck and the Sixth Minesweeping flotilla.

Japanese broadcasts, first to tell of the attacks on the Nicobars, speculated that a landing attempt would be made.

May Dump Milk In Ditches

KANSAS CITY, July 13 (AP)—Many dairymen face the prospect of "dumping milk in ditches" because of a dispute involving handlers of the product at two processing plants, Athel Cummings, Oak Grove dairyman, said today.

Cummings was one of 12 farmers who accompanied three truckloads of milk, picked up from 30 dairymen, which was refused at the Adams Dairy company plant in Blue Springs. The milk was returned to the dairymen and this morning was back at the roadside pickup stations in cans.

Union dockmen in dairy plants have refused to unload milk brought in by farm pickup drivers who do not carry union cards. R. O. Jackson, secretary-treasurer of the Milk Drivers Union, said picket lines would be thrown around plants that took milk from non-union drivers.

Mike Cassidy, plant manager at the Aines Farm Dairy company, said, "We would still take the milk from nonunion collectors if the union men would unload it."

Miss Verda Jean Phillips of Kansas City is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. William E. Zahner, and family, 311 East Eleventh street.

Japs May Have 9,000 Planes

GUAM, July 13 (AP)—Despite loss of 4,000 planes during the Ryukyus campaign, Japan may still have 9,000 planes of all types which she may be conserving for defense of the home land. Rear Adm. D. C. Ramsey, newly appointed chief of staff of the Fifth Fleet said today.

Of her remaining planes, Japan can put 4,000 into the air in defense of the home islands, he told war correspondents in an interview. With this in mind, the Japanese may have adopted a "policy of conservation" of its airforce since it has not been in action to any marked degree lately.

The enemy may find it difficult to maintain its construction of aircraft under repeated bombings by U. S. planes and may have to resort to "wooden construction," Ramsey predicted, although he thought the enemy had many good airplanes left.

Sunday School Lesson

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.
Lasting Peace Depends Upon Extent to Which We Emulate Abraham. Scripture Genesis 11:26; 12:20

"Abraham" is a word written deeply into our American life and history, for it was the Christian name of the great and noble Lincoln, who in a tragic time of division and strife, manifested the spirit of magnanimity which characterized the original Abraham, the pioneer and immigrant of the Genesis story.

The father and founder of the Jewish people, Abraham belongs to all of us, for God's purpose concerning him, stated in various places, and specifically in Genesis 18:18, was not only that through him there should become "a great and mighty nation," but also that "all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him."

That is a partially fulfilled purpose, but it still represents an unfinished work of God and man. As I write these words the representatives of the nations are still in session at the conference in San Francisco that is drawing to a close. It is the latest effort of the nations to establish peace, and its ultimate success will depend upon the extent to which nations and peoples are willing to follow the pioneer way that Abraham explored and to accept and achieve the purpose of God in giving to nations peace, prosperity and blessedness, instead of unhappiness and strife.

Abraham was the true and noble type of the pioneer. He was a pioneer in a physical sense, traveling far from his early home and its idolatrous surroundings of moon worshippers to distant Palestine, where he could worship a spiritual God, according to his faith and conscience and lay the foundation of a race and nation. He made the great journey with his possessions, herds, and herdsmen, when travel was not easy and he went out, like all pioneers, with the courage of one who did not know what lay ahead. "He went out not knowing whither he went." (Hebrews 11:8.)

He was a pioneer of faith. All pioneers in a sense are men of faith. If they did not have some sort of faith they would not be pioneers—for the pioneer is seeking something better, either for himself, or for some opportunity to build on new foundations for tomorrow. Our American pioneers must have had that, or they never could have faced the dangers and privations of the long trek across the prairie and over the mountains. It takes faith to build for the future. The Christian pioneers who went westward knew the story of Abraham and they were conscious that they were following in his footsteps and fulfilling similar purposes of God.

We shall see Abraham in two lessons that follow, as a man of unflinching courage, able and willing to fight, if necessary, but essentially a man of peace, willing to forego his own interests, if he can thereby maintain peace and good relationships. His story is among the supreme records of magnanimity.

We shall see him as a man of resourcefulness and effectiveness, with all the efficiency of inward strength, able to take what seems the poorer land and the less luscious fields, but able to make more out of them than the self-seeking Lot, who chose what seemed the richer and better watered country, when Abraham gave him his choice.

Faith, courage and efficiency—these are the marks of the man who makes the purposes of God his chief aim and goal.

The Roots of Delinquency

Children do not grow up healthy in mind and body through mere chance. They are the product of homes where sound moral training goes hand in hand with good physical care. Thus, when teen age youngsters become "problems," the blame must rest largely on parents who have failed to measure fully to their responsibilities.

The "bad" parent is not necessarily a drunken, cruel, or grossly stupid father or mother. The "kind" but "too-busy-to-bother" father, or the "good" mother who "just couldn't imagine" her Bob or Mary getting into trouble may be far more dangerous to their children and do more to make them social misfits than the most patently misfit guardian. The records of the juvenile courts are eloquent proof that this is true.

Parents fail when they resign from their jobs too soon; when they feel that their high school sons or daughters no longer need their protection and guidance. Boys and girls who engage in petting parties, who frequent questionable dance halls and saloons, who smoke and drink, are not children who have suddenly become "bad." They are youngsters who have literally been cast adrift by selfish or willfully blind parents.

The delinquent youth is made by the delinquent parent. He is a delinquent because he has no father to whom he may bring his problems, no "pal" to help him over the difficult period of adolescence; because he has no mother to give him understanding and sympathy, to make him feel how truly he is loved. He becomes a delinquent because when the companionship of parents is most necessary, he finds their heart and mind closed to him. Small wonder if he turns to the dangerous company of others equally lonely and bewildered? Small wonder that youthful impetuosity and inexperience helps to set the stage for ultimate tragedy.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"GOD" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, July 15, 1945.
Golden Text: Psalms 103:19. Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost." (Rom. 14:17)
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Let us learn of the reign of Spirit, the kingdom of heaven—the reign and rule of universal harmony, which cannot be lost nor remain forever unseen." (p. 208)

A Little Time May Save a Life

Dedicate less than half an hour today to some man or woman in the service and assure the success of a vital home-front offensive—the collection of tons of used tin cans from curbsides in front of Sedalia's homes Sunday morning.

A half hour spent today in washing the cans, removing labels, and flattening the cans will help insure tin to make syrettes to relieve pain on the battlefield and protect life-giving blood plasma.

Eagles Defeat SAAF 5 to 0

The Missouri Pacific Eagles defeated the SAAF officers 5 to 0 Wednesday night at the Smith-Cotton high school diamond, becoming the winner of the first round in the Twilight softball league.

The play-off game was scheduled when the two teams played a 4-4 tie and the game was called because of darkness, Tuesday night, July 3.

Wednesday night the Eagles had 10 hits, five of which were doubles. Luke Hyatt, pitcher, limed the Officers to one hit, a first inning single by Lane, the Officers pitcher.

After the first inning the Officers went down in one, two, three order as only 18 batters faced Hyatt during the last six innings.

The Eagles scored one run in the first inning on doubles by Shirley and Studer, and blazed their big inning in the second, scoring three runs. Ellsworth led off with a walk; Hyatt, Satterwhite and Paul followed with singles and Norman was safe on an error, accounting for the three Eagle runs.

The shopmen added the final run in the third when, with two outs, Ellsworth and Hyatt hit successive doubles. The Eagles secured one hit in each of their last three innings at bat, but failed to score.

This team has voluntarily dropped out of the second round play which started Tuesday of this week.

The other four teams—Montgomery Ward, Rosenthal's, Sacred Heart and SAAF Officers are now playing round robin series, the winner to meet the Eagles in a

Do you know a man can be SHOCKED TO DEATH?

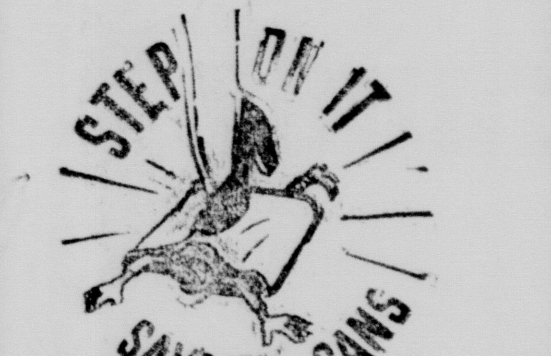

American war doctors declare that apart from the injury itself—the very shock and pain of being wounded in combat can kill a fighting man.

That's why every American soldier, sailor, and marine who is wounded in combat needs a "syrrette." A "syrrette" you know, is a miniature hypodermic with the merciful power to allay pain and shock.

That's a good thing for you to know—you folks who regularly prepare and save all your empty tin cans for collection and salvage.

For—there's enough pure tin in only 2 ordinary tin cans to make one "syrrette."

So, by preparing all your tin cans for salvage you're helping to provide tin needed for the production of "syrrettes"—and countless other vitally needed articles of war equipment.

Remember... TIN is a "precious metal" that goes to war in hundreds of ways. TIN helps make protective containers for blood plasma, medicines, foods. TIN goes into every field telephone and radio, into every cannon, machine gun, and hand grenade. Practically everything that rolls, flies, fights, or that feeds, heals, or saves our men—needs TIN! And America's only "tin mines" are in your kitchens!

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 13—(P)—Now that horse racing and baseball have been forced to recognize the seriousness of the transportation shortage, we wonder if college football will get the idea without being told... So far the only institution that has checked in here with news of a schedule change is Compton, Calif., which cancelled three games requiring rail travel and scheduled service teams that will provide the transportation... Considering baseball's difficulties, maybe the year's most valuable award should automatically go to the Dodgers' seats... Tuane, with 43 freshmen registering for football the first day, is using its football dormitory for the first time since the Navy V-12 program was established. As usual, when the sailors moved out the (green) Waves moved in.

Yank Soldier Will Follow The Russians

Now Feels Free to Make Friends With German Civilians

By Daniel De Luce

BERLIN, July 13—(AP)—To the great relief of GI Joe and Tommy Atkins, when you're in Berlin you do as the Russians do.

In other words, American and British troops in the German capital—most of whom are fed up with the non-fraternization policy in force in western Germany—are copying the internationally friendly ways of the Red army in peacetime.

The generals may say that nothing has been changed in the rule book since they moved more than 30,000 American and British soldiers into Berlin. But things nevertheless seem to be different.

Ivanovich—the Red army equivalent of GI Joe—operates on the understanding that he's not supposed to take dyes in the wool Nazis to his bosom. He believes that Nazis properly belong behind bars and that Germans who are not Nazis are entitled to be treated without trace hatred. Premier Stalin's words to that effect appear on many signboards.

Therefore, when Ivan saunters out in the early evening he feels perfectly free to drop into a convenient cafe, strike up an acquaintance with any German girl and invite her to dance and drink with him.

Crowding Night Spots
In the past week American and British troops also have been crowding night spots favored by the Russians.

Last Monday, British, Canadian and American military police—operating in teams—began trying to discourage public dancing by troops of the western Allies along such bright light avenues as Kurfuerstendamm.

"Take it easy, soldier," was their cautionary advice. "You can sit it out with a girl, but don't get up and dance until non-trat is lifted."

Most of the soldiers accepted it good humoredly, though pointing out that their Russian Allies were enjoying jive without hindrance.

Yesterday announcement was made that the Berlin military government would follow previous policies laid down by the Russians until new ones are issued by the inter-Allied "kommandatur." Thea nouncement seemed to apply to the conduct of soldiers in cafes and cabarets as well as to the administration of the police and water departments.

Your Tin Cans May Save Soldiers' Lives

Follow these four simple steps in preparing cans:

- Wash cans thoroughly
- Remove paper labels
- Cut out ends and tuck in
- Flatten cans by stepping on them.

A syrette is a small tube of pain-killing morphine, having its own hypodermic needle. It is carried by American soldiers in combat. By deadening pain and reducing shock, the syrette saves countless lives of American fighting men all over the world.

Enough tin may be salvaged from 100 used tin cans to make fifty syrettes. Help Sedalia reach its goal TODAY, by having as many prepared tin cans on your curb as you possibly can.
